

THIS IS A SERVICE DOG IN TRAINING

Under South Carolina Code 1976 § 43-33-20 and North Carolina G.S.A. § 168, businesses must give access to a person who is training a service dog, so long as the dog is not disruptive or destructive. This includes restaurants, hospitals, taxis, ambulances, busses, stores, movie theaters, and other places of public accommodation.

THIS IS A SERVICE DOG IN TRAINING

Under South Carolina Code 1976 § 43-33-20 and North Carolina G.S.A. § 168, businesses must give access to a person who is training a service dog, so long as the dog is not disruptive or destructive. This includes restaurants, hospitals, taxis, ambulances, busses, stores, movie theaters, and other places of public accommodation.

THIS IS A SERVICE DOG IN TRAINING

Under South Carolina Code 1976 § 43-33-20 and North Carolina G.S.A. § 168, businesses must give access to a person who is training a service dog, so long as the dog is not disruptive or destructive. This includes restaurants, hospitals, taxis, ambulances, busses, stores, movie theaters, and other places of public accommodation.

THIS IS A SERVICE DOG IN TRAINING

Under South Carolina Code 1976 § 43-33-20 and North Carolina G.S.A. § 168, businesses must give access to a person who is training a service dog, so long as the dog is not disruptive or destructive. This includes restaurants, hospitals, taxis, ambulances, busses, stores, movie theaters, and other places of public accommodation.

THIS IS A SERVICE DOG IN TRAINING

Under South Carolina Code 1976 § 43-33-20 and North Carolina G.S.A. § 168, businesses must give access to a person who is training a service dog, so long as the dog is not disruptive or destructive. This includes restaurants, hospitals, taxis, ambulances, busses, stores, movie theaters, and other places of public accommodation.

THIS IS A SERVICE DOG IN TRAINING

Under South Carolina Code 1976 § 43-33-20 and North Carolina G.S.A. § 168, businesses must give access to a person who is training a service dog, so long as the dog is not disruptive or destructive. This includes restaurants, hospitals, taxis, ambulances, busses, stores, movie theaters, and other places of public accommodation.

THIS IS A SERVICE DOG IN TRAINING

Under South Carolina Code 1976 § 43-33-20 and North Carolina G.S.A. § 168, businesses must give access to a person who is training a service dog, so long as the dog is not disruptive or destructive. This includes restaurants, hospitals, taxis, ambulances, busses, stores, movie theaters, and other places of public accommodation.

THIS IS A SERVICE DOG IN TRAINING

Under South Carolina Code 1976 § 43-33-20 and North Carolina G.S.A. § 168, businesses must give access to a person who is training a service dog, so long as the dog is not disruptive or destructive. This includes restaurants, hospitals, taxis, ambulances, busses, stores, movie theaters, and other places of public accommodation.

THIS IS A SERVICE DOG IN TRAINING

Under South Carolina Code 1976 § 43-33-20 and North Carolina G.S.A. § 168, businesses must give access to a person who is training a service dog, so long as the dog is not disruptive or destructive. This includes restaurants, hospitals, taxis, ambulances, busses, stores, movie theaters, and other places of public accommodation.

THIS IS A SERVICE DOG IN TRAINING

Under South Carolina Code 1976 § 43-33-20 and North Carolina G.S.A. § 168, businesses must give access to a person who is training a service dog, so long as the dog is not disruptive or destructive. This includes restaurants, hospitals, taxis, ambulances, busses, stores, movie theaters, and other places of public accommodation.